DAVIS THEATRE

Four Shows Today-at 1.30, 3.15, 6.45 angle Pictures.

There will be four shows at the Davis today and an excellent bill of Keith vaudeville and Triangle photo-plays is the popular attraction. Heading the show is the Three Higgie Girls, offering a delightful and origi-nal feast of music and mirth. Knox Brothers are two clever comedians. The next act is Evelyn and Dolly, two versatile girls, who present a sing-ing, dancing, roller skating and bicy-cle act. The Triangle feature is Doug-lass Fairbanks in his new hilarious comedy, The Habit of Happiness, a five-part production. Completing the five-part production. Completing the show is a two-reel new hilarious comedy, entitled A Bathhouse Blunder with Charles Murray making most Seats Now Selling for Experience. Music and dancing form a very delightful part of George V. Hobart's modern morality comedy-drama, Experience, which comes to the Davis theatre for two nights. Monday and Tuesday, May 15 and 16. Music runs all through the plece from the first act to the tenth. This music is very act to the tenth. This music is very catchy and captivating, especially in the Golden Cabaret scene on the Primrose Path of Pleasure. AT THE AUDITORIUM.

Last Chance Today to See Romance of Norwich, the Big Local Picture Feature-Geraldine Farrar Also on To- Dealers in Masons' Building Supplies.

Today will be the last chance to see The Romance of Norwich, the local motion picture which has been drawing such big crowds to the Auditorium all this week. One scene in the picture shows the Saturday matinee crowd of two weeks ago today coming from the theatre. It will be interesting to those who happened to get caught by the camera to see themselves on the picture screen. An excellent photoplay introduced by Jesse L. Lasky and released by Paramount will be shown today, with Geraldine Farrar, the metropolitan opera star, in the the metropolitan opera star, in the leading role. The photodrama, entitled Temptation, is a story of modern times, and Miss Farrar is fully as interesting in it as she was in her interpretation of Carmen, which was shown here in pictures a few weeks ago. Pathe comedy pictures will be shown by a story also.

For next Monday and Tuesday the feature Paramount picture will be Mary Pickford in The Foundling, a property of the founding, a presented by Daniel Prohman through the Famous Players Film company. Besides this attractive feature on next Monday and Tuesday a two-reel Kleine feature entitled The Mothering Heart will be shown as well as a corking tomedy real by Pathe.

THE BARN DANCE

Mayor Murphy Selected as One of the Judges on Costumes.

Present indications are that the barn dance to be given in Olympic hall next Tuesday evening under the auspices of the Knights of Columbus will be a great success. Mayor Murphy has consented, together with Charles A. Gager, Jr., and F. J. Murtha, to act as judges of the most typical farmer costumes worn by the ladies and gentlemen who take part in the festivities.

suburban residents and his honor the mayor has assured the committee that he can be depended upon to exercise good judgment in his selection of prize winning costumes.

It is expected that the judges will have their time very fully occupied in making their selection. Rumor has it that Mike Sweeney of Fitchville is coming down with an aggregation of country lads and lassies that will make Jim Sheridan and his awkward squad of so-called "rubes" take to the tall strass. Further reports from Joe Hickey of Montville, Denny Murphy of Taftville, John Hennon of Jewett City and A. Belivance of Moosup give assurances that all these sections will be represented by good sized delegations, all attired in their most fantastic costumes. It will certainly be a tic costumes.
